

MANDARINO

VARNELLI

... Fine, Lively, Versatile

The freshness of citrus fruit, a moderate alcohol content and delicate taste make Mandarino ideal for original, successful cocktails and long drinks.

TO THE EYE

Chamomile colour with orange shades.

ON THE NOSE

Strong, persistent aromas of citrus fruit, where mandarin dominates; notes of white spices, vanilla, and flowers are also present.

ON THE PALATE

The attack is well balanced and, from an initial note of mandarin and citrus fruit, develops into a complex, harmonious combination of white spices (white pepper, cinnamon, curry) and vanilla.

PERSISTENCE

The mandarin flavour is clean and definite, leaving a pleasant aromatic note on the finish.

SERVING SUGGESTIONS

Pleasant and versatile, it leaves an impression of freshness. An easy product, it is well-liked by all palates. It should be drunk iced. Also excellent if blended with sparkling wine (Mandarino Cup), fruit juice, lemon juice (Mandarino Sour), or added to crushed ice and sorbet. Serve in the dark chocolate 'Cicchetto' to surprise your guests.

SOME RECIPES

Mandarino Cup

(can be prepared in flute glass or bowl)

Directly in the flute glass:

3 cl Mandarino Varnelli

7 cl brut sparkling wine

In the bowl
(for 10 to 15 people):

30 cl Mandarino Varnelli

1 bottle of brut sparkling wine, fruit (oranges, lemons, mandarins;
apples, cut into pieces).

Mandarino Sour

4 cl Mandarino Varnelli

2 cl lemon juice

1 cl sugar syrup

Pour into a shaker with ice and serve in an iced goblet. Garnish with a red cherry.

Mandarino Frozen

4 cl Mandarino Varnelli

2 cl rum

1 cl liquid sugar

0.5 cl grenadine

Pour all the ingredients into a blender with ice. Mix and pour into a margherita glass. Garnish with a segment of citrus fruit.

Mandarinha

2,5 cl Mandarino Varnelli

2,5 cl vodka

$\frac{1}{2}$ lime cut into pieces

2 tsp of brown sugar

Crush the lime with sugar in a glass.

Add plenty of crushed ice, the Mandarino and vodka.

SORBET SUGGESTION

1 cl Mandarino Varnelli
(a sprinkle)
on 60 g of lemon ice cream
